

Acorn news in a nutshell

Acorn continues to offer counselling during the Covid pandemic

- * Coming soon—Look out for our new logo! With new premises and a new address, Acorn needs new branding!
- * Clients now have the choice of face to face meetings in our counselling room at Pilgrim House, St Dunstan's Road, Worthing BN13 1AA or telephone counselling

- ◇ Our schools' volunteers present an excellent lesson to year 10 classes on the subject of pregnancy and the development of the foetus

*The class found it really engaging, thanks a lot.
(Teacher)*

- ◇ Volunteers visit most of the schools in Worthing and a few further afield
- ◇ They are currently waiting for schools to return so that they can resume this

- ◆ We have developed Covid protocols to keep everyone safe
- ◆ We are supporting a good number of clients approaching us for counselling

*I can't believe how much speaking to someone once a week changed my life at such a hard time.
Wonderful charity. (Client)*

All our counselling is provided FREE by specially trained and supervised counselling volunteers. Many of our clients like to make a donation to our work. We are always happy to receive these. To make a donation, see the Support page on our website.
