COUNSELLING CENTRE

New Counselling volunteers

We are delighted that three new counselling volunteers will be joining us very soon! This means we will be able to reduce our waiting lists and support more people.

We welcome Jean, Yasmin and Lucy!

New independent examiner

Each year our accounts have to be audited by an independent examiner. We are delighted to have found a new volunteer to do this for us. The accounts are now ready for the AGM in June.

Thank you Andrew!

Our lovely centre manager, Angela, is always happy to hear from potential new volunteers. At the moment our greatest need is for schools' team assistants.
